PRAYER: A PARENT'S MOST POWERFUL TOOL

Kathie Morrissey

Why we need to pray for our children:

1. We are in a war, and the battle for our kids is waged on our knees.
2. To acknowledge our dependency on God
   *He will work in their hearts
   *It will instill a greater dependency on Him
   *Their spiritual growth will become more important in our daily priorities
3. So His power can penetrate their lives

Our Weapon as We Pray – God's Word

1. It is quick and powerful - Hebrews 4:12
2. It is never ineffectual or without fruit - Isaiah 55:11

Prayer Promises

1. Jeremiah 33:3
2. James 5:16
3. John 15:7

Prayer Ideas - Mark 9:23, 24

1. Ask God to help you be what you want your child to become
2. Ask God for wisdom to present knowledge to them effectively
3. Bring your child and his problems to God in prayer
4. Have faith
5. Tell God you believe your child will turn out right
6. Ask God to strengthen your faith
7. Cry for your child
